Ms. Dill stated that Annie's Project is a national program designed to empower women in agriculture to manage information and learn about agriculture in a relaxed local network. The target audience is women with a passion for business, agriculture and involvement in the farm operation. However, the program is not just for women. Men also take the course.

Ms. Dill mentioned that because of the additional funding provided by the MSRC last year, and again this year, they are able to provide farm recordkeeping workshops that include QuickBooks and a farm tour.

Ms. Dill reviewed a handout she provided in the meeting packets.

- Planned and conducted a Women in Ag Farm tour which visited three farms and increased awareness in ag tourism, and hops production. The tour was held on September 4, 2019 and attended by 42 participants

Shore Gourmet/Chesapeake Culinary Center partnership

Chairman Chase introduced Beth Brewster, Chesapeake Culinary Center Executive Director, to provide a progress report on the activities of the Shore Gourmet and Chesapeake Culinary Center partnership.

Ms. Brewster utilized a PowerPoint Presentation to give the report. She was assisted by Roxanne Wolf, Shore Gourmet Development and Education Coordinator.

One of their big projects is to combat poverty and they are starting with feeding the children in Caroline County who are going home hungry on weekends and during the summer. They are doing this by utilizing seconds from farmers. This project also benefits cafeteria workers by providing them more payable hours during the summer months by having them process the foods. They also highlighted value-added food product development, one-sheet meals utilizing local foods, and researching the economic feasibility and agricultural viability of growing niche products to diversify local crops. Additionally, the Chesapeake Culinary Center has recently purchased a truck to assist in getting food to a wider array of patrons. The commercial kitchen continues to be utilized by several people as they prepare food items for sale. With added funding they hope to be able to stretch beyond Caroline County to assist others in need in both Dorchester and Talbot Counties. The five main topics they hope to address are Education/Well Being, Prevention, Family Unit, Economic Development, and Food Equity/Hunger.

Ms. Brewster thanked the MSRC for the funding support provided through the RMPIF funds to support Shore Gourmet. Without this additional, stable funding several of the programs including working with farmers to diversify their businesses would not be able to be undertaken or sustained.

Maryland General Assembly

2020 Legislative session

Mr. Warner stated that the Governor maintained council funding at $200,000 for each regional council in the FY2021 budget. This is the fifth year in a row the Governor has included the regional council funding level at the historical legislative intention. The regional councils are thankful for the Governor's support.

Mr. Warner then introduced Rural Maryland Council (RMC) Executive Director Charlotte Davis to provide an update on the legislative session.

Rural Maryland Prosperity Investment Fund (RMPIF) is a key step forward in addressing disparities in the State's rural areas. RMPIF supports Rural Maryland Council's activities, the Maryland Agricultural Education and Rural Development Assistance Fund (MAERDAF), the state's five regional councils, regional infrastructure projects, rural entrepreneurship development, and rural health care organizations.

In the Governor's proposed FY2021 budget the RMC/RMPIF is funded at $6,160,751, which is level funding from last year.

MAERDAF provides grants to rural-serving nonprofit organizations that promote statewide and regional planning, economic and community development, and agricultural and forestry education. Also eligible are rural community colleges that support small and agricultural businesses through enhanced training and technical assistance. MAERDAF's goal is to increase the overall capacity of rural-serving nonprofit organizations and community colleges to meet a multitude of rural development challenges and to help them establish new public/private partnerships for leveraging non-state sources of funding. MAERDAF receives funding through RMPIF as well as a separate line item totaling $167,000, which is level funding from last year.

- SB790/HB1508 clarifying resource-sharing agreements with the Department of IT and waiving fees for access to state rights-of-way.
- SB540/HB999 allowing Choptank Electric to become member-regulated.
